UNSTARRED QUESTION NO.2355
FOR ANSWER ON 08/12/2014

NATIONAL STEEL POLICY

2355. SHRI DUSHYANT SINGH:

Will the Minister of STEEL be pleased to state:

- (a) whether the Government is drafting a new National Steel Policy;
- (b) if so, the details thereof including the time by which the proposed new policy is likely to be implemented; and
- (c) the details of the total steel production projected currently as well as in the proposed new policy?

ANSWER

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF STEEL AND MINES (SHRI VISHNU DEO SAI)

(a)to(c): Yes, Madam. A New National Steel Policy is under drafting stage and hence no timelines can be indicated.

As per the National Steel Policy 2005, it is projected that crude steel production in the country would reach 110 million tonnes by 2019-20.
